

Article I The Academic Assembly Meetings

Article I.C.1. & I.C.2.

Rationale: Deletes reference to meetings of campus assemblies every semester, as most campus assemblies have not met on a regular basis for several years. Language related to other requirements for campus assembly meetings is retained. Changes in the organization of the remaining language places language related to university wide academic assembly meetings and language related to campus assembly meetings in separate items for greater clarity.

Article I.C.1. & I.C.2. Currently reads:

C. Meetings

1. Regular meetings: Regular meetings of the university-wide Academic Assembly are not envisioned. A campus president of the Academic Assembly may call meetings of the assembly membership for the campus of which he or she is president. The president of the campus on which any assembly meeting takes place, or his or her designee, shall preside. Campus meetings shall be held at least once each semester. The agenda of each meeting shall be published in a form accessible to assembly members at least one week in advance of the meeting.
2. Special meetings: The president of the university or the UAC may call meetings of the Academic Assembly. Any 50 members of the university-wide Academic Assembly may request a special meeting of the whole assembly by writing the chair of the UAC. Any 15 members of a particular campus may request a special meeting of the campus Academic Assembly membership. The purpose of any special meeting must be explicitly stated, and the special meeting shall be limited to that subject. A specific agenda and any proposals for action shall be sent to each member of the assembly at least two weeks prior to the meeting.
