Senate President Helene Ossipov

Len Gordon, Senator for the Emeritus College, passed away suddenly on March 4, 2015. He was a valued and active member of the University Senate, serving as Senate President in 1980-81. All who knew him or worked with him, either at the Emeritus College, the Senate, or CLAS when he was Associate Dean, know that he was deeply committed to the students of ASU. This commitment made him the ideal chair for the Student Faculty Policy Committee; he also served on the Senate's ACD 402 Task Force and on the University's Sexual Violence Prevention Task Force. His tireless championing of shared governance and his unflinching good humor will be missed.

What is the Course Swap Requirement?

The course-swap policy (aka The Swap) was a policy whereby units who submitted a new course proposal would have to also submit a course deletion at the same time... in other words, swap an old course for new course. The Senate received a substantial amount of negative feedback on this topic, and the concerns were presented to the administration. We are happy to announce that the Provost has agreed to repeal the course swap policy. The Senate does encourage all academic units to continue to audit their classes and eliminate courses that are no longer being taught.
