Subject: FY 12 Annual Report Classified Research

During the Academic Year 2012 no classified research projects were initiated. The Security Clearance with the U.S. Department of Energy to ASU for research investigations performing off site at Federal Sponsor Facilities has been terminated at the request of the sponsor due to lack of covered projects.

The key management personnel listing has been updated to remove Dr. Rick Shangraw who is no longer an ASU employee and to add an ABOR representative, Regent Rick Myers.

The annual facility visit by the U.S. Department of Defense Industrial Security Field Office was performed on February 29, 2012.

There are no cleared projects active at this time.

Subject: FY 12 Annual Report of Misconduct in Research Investigations

During the Academic Year 2012 two (2) allegations of misconduct were investigated under RSP 210 Misconduct in Research.

The two allegations of plagiarism were referred to the OKED Research Integrity Officer for investigation. One account was upheld and one was dismissed by the respective inquiry and investigation committees. Each action was reported through OKED to the Office of the Provost and the academic unit leaders were notified.
