Senate President Brenda Hosley

I would like to thank everyone for another outstanding semester at ASU. The continued success of our university could not occur without your commitment to providing a quality experience for all of our students. Each of the Senate standing committees continues to work diligently on a variety of substantive topics. Please read e-mail correspondence from your senators carefully so that you might be able to provide critical feedback, as requested.

The Senate office would like to wish everyone a happy holiday season. I look forward to our continued service in 2016.

ASU Services and Facilities

The Senate University Services and Facilities committee is disseminating a survey to all members of the Academic Assembly to request feedback on services and facilities that may need improvement or repair. This survey is being provided specifically to faculty members and APs.

Feedback received through this survey will be provided to the senior administration to assist in the prioritization of services and facilities upgrades and repairs, as well as guide the committee in their future work.
